WHO WE ARE ●

At AMS Events, we specialize in event production, offering a full range of services that encompass everything from lighting and audio to LED displays and video engineering. With our extensive experience and technical expertise, we can help you turn your vision into reality, creating immersive events that leave a lasting impression on your guests.

OUR SERVICES ●

Our comprehensive production equipment and technology capabilities include lighting design, audio engineering, LED display, video engineering, and professional event management. Whether you're planning a corporate event, concert, or private celebration, our team is here to ensure that every detail is taken care of and that your event exceeds your expectations.

LIGHTING DESIGN ●

Our experienced lighting designers use the latest technology and high-quality equipment to create stunning lighting displays that set the tone for your event. From subtle nuances to bold and dramatic effects, we can help you create a show-stopping visual experience that will leave your guests in awe.

AUDIO ●

At AMS Events, we understand that sound quality is crucial to the success of any event. That's why our expert sound engineers and state-of-the-art equipment ensure that every note, every word, and every sound is crisp, clear, and immersive. We pride ourselves on delivering high-quality audio experiences that elevate your event to the next level.

LED DISPLAY ●

Our latest LED display technology can create giant screens that will captivate your audiences. From curved displays to custom configurations, we can help you design, install, and manage content for an extraordinary experience. Whether you're showcasing your brand or creating an immersive visual experience, our LED displays will engage and captivate your attendees.

VIDEO ENGINEERING ●

From live streaming to multi-camera setups, our experienced video engineers will ensure your video presentations are seamless and glitch-free. We use the latest technology and equipment to capture every moment and create a polished and professional visual experience for your guests.

EVENT MANAGEMENT ●

We understand that planning and executing an event can be stressful and time-consuming. That's why we offer professional event management services to take care of every detail, from pre-event planning to on-site management. Our highly skilled and creative technical staff are dedicated to making your event successful, so you can relax and enjoy the experience.
